

UnLtd Award Winners

Achievements in 2009

This is a selected list of the UnLtd Award Winners whose work has received recognition in the last year.

Lincoln Moses, Manager of Continental Stars Football Club, has been honoured with an MBE for his services to community football, uniting communities across Birmingham through the power of sport.

Brixton based Level 2 Award Winner Ros Spearing of Ebony Horse Club won the London Legacy Prize at the Beyond Sport Awards. The first prize of £60,000 will help the Club develop a new riding school near the site of the 2012 Olympics.

Marion Janner from Star Wards received an OBE for services to mental health care in the New Year honours list.

Dave Miller from BikeWorks won the national award for best new social enterprise in the Enterprising Solutions Awards.

Maria Zedda from Wideaware was the National Winner of the RTS Disabled Entrepreneur Award.

Roger Wilson Hinds from Screenreader won the Nominet Internet for All Award.

Phil Conway from Cool2Care won the national RADAR Doing Care and Support Differently Award.

Tim Crabtree from Local Food Links was the first caterer in the country to receive the Food for Life Gold Mark.

Heather Gardner-Masoud from Zaytoun won the Times Reader category at the Women in Ethical Business Award.

Anny's Darkwa from Vision Housing won the How to Make a Difference Award at the Community Channel. She has also just achieved Probation Service accreditation status to be funded for offender resettlement without need for a tender.

Raheel Mohammed of Maslaha was recognised as a Muslim Leader of Tomorrow at the Doha Conference 2009.

Atif Choudary from EDEN Skills, Kevin Matthew from Fitness for Your Future, Jamie Fielden from Jamie's Farm, Nina Lemon from Peer Productions and Dan Lewer from Carbon Retirement were all winners at the Future 100 Young Entrepreneurs Awards.

Margaret Lee from Cresco Trust in Derry received an MBE in the New Year honours list.

Jenny Cooke from Music Theatre 4 Youth in Northern Ireland secured the Volunteering Ireland All Ireland Volunteer Award for services to the arts.

Marie Marin Chief Executive of Employers for Childcare has several achievements in 2009 with her organisation securing Social Enterprise Mark Champion status, runner up in the Enterprising Britain Award, securing the Ulster Bank Social Entrepreneurship Business Achiever, securing the Slugger O'Toole Political Lobbying Campaign of the Year and runner up in the Social Enterprise Awards NI.

Joe Hyland secured the City Beat Community Together Award for SOS Bus.

Andrew Walters, The Big Ride won Shell Spring Board and Young Enterprise of the Year.

Chris Wright, Action for Sustainable Living won Guardian Charity Award.

Paula Gamester, Connector Media received an award for women in business.

Mike Britton, Goodwill Solutions, won Social Enterprise of the Year at the Startup Awards.

continued overleaf...

Clare and Duncan Edwards won awards from British Healthcare Trades Association.

Maureen Fazal, West Lancashire Community Recycling was a finalist in the Best in Business Awards.

Linda James from Bulliesout has won a number of awards including Tesco Achieving Mum of the Year, South Wales Echo & Kingsmill Community Champion Award and Ariel's Success Award.

Kate Wood from Your Pets Warehouse won the Employer of the Year Award from Elite Supported Employment Agency.

Trevor Lynn of the Grow Organisation topped the RBS Social Enterprise 100 list for financial growth and social impact reporting.

We know there are more to follow ...

UnLtd*